

Recent situation in pharmaceutical market of medical preparations of alpha-lipoic acid in Ukraine

A.V. Scherbak

Summary. This article covers questions connected with the application of preparations of alpha-lipoic acid origin registered in Ukraine. They present a table in which there enlisted all registered preparations and their medical forms as well as recommendation for their prescription. The authors analyze the mechanisms of action, they give analytical analysis results of clinical research which was done. Basic preparations made on alpha-lipoic acid basis such as Espa-lipon, Berlithyon and Thioctacid have found wide application in many clinics of Western Europe and Russia.