

Diabetic polyneuropathy of lower extremities - result of treatment at the patients with diabetes mellitus

A.Larin, E.Savran, V.Skibun, D.Kogut, E.Giryavenko

Summary. Results of comparative study of efficacy of various doses Espa-lipon in diabetic foot syndrome treatment with presence and without ulcers are submitted. 73 patients with diabetes mellitus 1 and 2 types are studied. The received results allow to recommend application Espa-lipon in dozes 900 and 1200 mg/day intravenously slowly №10-20 with the subsequent purpose 600 mg/day within 2 months at treatment of the patients with diabetes mellitus with diabetic polyneuropathy in case of diabetic foot syndrome presence complicated ulcer's process.

Key words: diabetic foot syndrome, ulcer's process, Espa-lipon.